

Saint Louis De Montfort

Born to a poor family in northwestern France on January 31, 1673, Louis de Montfort's early years were marked by poverty and struggle. Yet, it was this hardship that fed his resilience and lit a flame of unwavering faith in his heart. Despite the obstacles, young Louis showed an early interest in spiritual matters. He was drawn towards the teachings of the Catholic Church and embraced a rigorous life of prayer, which led him to pursue Priesthood. He was ordained a priest in 1700, marking a pivotal moment in his life.

The miracles of saint Louis De Montfort

- 1. The Miracle of the Statue: In a small village in France, Louis supposedly healed a statue of Mary which had been damaged due to the Protestant Reformation. After praying fervently, the statue restored itself to its original state. This event became a symbol of the triumphant and restorative power of faith, further enhancing the Marian devotion within the Catholic Church.
- 2. Healing Miracles: Throughout his mission to evangelize Western France, numerous healings were attributed to Louis's prayers and faith, the blind could see
- 3. Protection from Poison: There is an incident of attempted poisoning during his travels for evangelization. Despite consuming the poisoned food and wine, Louis survived unscathed. This miracle demonstrates the protection God
